PART THREE   - CONDUCT

SECTION 28 – PRIVACY POLICY

28.1 GENERAL

28.1.1 Background
Privacy of personal information is governed by the Personal Information Protection and Electronics Documents Act (“PIPEDA”). This policy describes the way that GCG collects, uses, safeguards, discloses and disposes of personal information, and states GCG’s commitment to collecting, using and disclosing personal information responsibly. This policy is based on the standards required by PIPEDA, and GCG’s interpretation of these responsibilities.

28.1.2 Purpose
The purpose of this policy is to govern the collection, use and disclosure of personal information in the course of commercial activities in a manner that recognized the right of privacy of individuals with respect to their personal information and the need of GCG to collect, use or disclose personal information.

28.1.3 Definitions
The following terms have these meanings in this Policy:

a. Act – Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act;

b. Commercial Activity – any particular transaction, act or conduct that is of a commercial character;

c. Personal Information – any information about an identifiable individual including information that relates to their personal characteristics including, but not limited to, gender, age, income, social insurance number, home address or phone number, athletic testing and results, email, ethnic background, family status, health history and health conditions;

d. Representatives – Members, Registered Participants, directors, officers, employees, committee members, officials, coaches, judges, referees, managers, trainers, volunteers, administrators, contractors and participants within GCG.

28.1.4 Application
This Policy applies to GCG Representatives in connection with personal information that is collected, used or disclosed during any commercial activity related to GCG.

28.1.5 Statutory Obligations
GCG is governed by the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act in matters involving the collection, use and disclosure of personal information.

28.1.6 Additional Obligations
In addition to fulfilling all requirements of the Act, GCG and its Representatives will also fulfill the additional requirements of this Policy. Representatives of GCG will not:
a. Disclose personal information to a third party during any business or transaction unless such business, transaction or other interest is properly consented to in accordance with this Policy;

b. Knowingly place themselves in a position where they are under obligation to any organization to disclose personal information;

c. In the performance of their official duties, disclose personal information to family members, friends or colleagues, or to organizations in which their family members, friends or colleagues have an interest;

d. Derive personal benefit from personal information that they have acquired during the course of fulfilling their duties with GCG;

e. Accept any gift or favor that could be construed as being given in anticipation of, or in recognition for, the disclosure of personal information.

28.1.7 Ruling on Policy
Except as provided in the Act, the Board of Directors of GCG will have the authority to interpret any provision of this Policy that is contradictory, ambiguous, or unclear.

28.2 ACCOUNTABILITY

28.2.1 Privacy Officer
The GCG Board shall appoint a Privacy Officer who is responsible for the implementation of this policy and monitoring information collection and data security, and ensuring that all staff receives appropriate training on privacy issues and their responsibilities. GCG is not required to obtain consent for the collection of personal information if:
   a. It is clearly in the individual’s interests and consent is not available in a timely way;
   b. Knowledge and consent would compromise the availability or accuracy of the information and collection is required to investigate a breach of an agreement or contravention of a federal or provincial law;
   c. The information is for journalistic, artistic or literary purposes; or,
   d. The information is publicly available as specified in the Act.

28.4.6 Exceptions for Use
GCG may use personal information without the individual’s knowledge or consent only:
   a. If GCG has reasonable grounds to believe the information could be useful when investigating a contravention of a federal, provincial or foreign law and the information is used for that investigation;
   b. For an emergency that threatens an individual’s life, health or security;
   c. For statistical or scholarly study or research;
d. If it is publicly available as specified in the Act;

e. If the use is clearly in the individual’s interest and consent is not available in a timely way; or,

f. If knowledge and consent would compromise the availability or accuracy of the information and collection was required to investigate a breach of an agreement or contravention of a federal or provincial law.

28.4.7 Exceptions for Disclosure

GCG may disclose personal information without the individual’s knowledge or consent only:

a. To a lawyer representing GCG;

b. To collect a debt the individual owes to GCG;

c. To comply with a subpoena, a warrant or an order made by a court or other body with appropriate jurisdiction;

d. To a government institution that has requested the information, identified its lawful authority, and indicated that disclosure is for the purpose of enforcing carrying out an investigation, or gathering intelligence relating to any federal, provincial or foreign law; or that suspects that the information relates to national security or the conduct of international affairs; or is for the purpose of administering any federal or provincial law;

e. To an investigative body named in the Act or government institution on GCG’s initiative when GCG believes the information concerns a breach of an agreement, or a contravention of a federal, provincial, or foreign law, or suspects the information relates to national security or the conduct of international affairs;

f. To an investigative body for the purposes related to the investigation of a breach of an agreement or a contravention of a federal or provincial law;

g. In an emergency threatening an individual’s life, health, or security (GCG must inform the individual of the disclosure);

h. For statistical, scholarly study or research;

i. To an archival institution;

j. 20 years after the individual’s death or 100 years after the record was created;

k. If it is publicly available as specified in the regulations; or,

l. If otherwise require by law.
28.5 LIMITING COLLECTION, USE AND DISCLOSURE AND RETENTION

28.5.1 Limiting Collection, Use and Disclosure
GCG will not collect, use or disclose personal information indiscriminately. Information collected will be for the purposes specified in Article 28.3.1, except with the consent of the individual or as required by law.

28.5.2 Retention Periods
Personal information will be retained as long as reasonably necessary to enable participation in GCG, to maintain accurate historical records and or as may be required by law.

28.5.3 Destruction of Information
Documents will be destroyed by way of shredding and electronic files will be deleted in their entirety.

28.6 SAFEGUARDS

Personal information will be protected by security safeguards appropriate to the sensitivity of the information against loss or theft, unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use or modification.

28.7 INDIVIDUAL ACCESS

28.7.1 Access
Upon written request, and with assistance from GCG, an individual may be informed of the existence, use and disclosure of his or her personal information and will be given access to that information. As well, an individual is entitled to be informed of the source of the personal information along with an account of third parties to whom the information has been disclosed.

28.7.2 Response
Requested information will be disclosed to the individual within 30 days of receipt of the written request at no cost to the individual, or at nominal costs relating to photocopying expenses, unless there are reasonable grounds to extend the time limit.

28.7.3 Denial
